

Speaking Rubric - Fifth and Sixth Grade

	Exceeds Standard	Meets Standard	Near Standard	Below Standard
Pronunciation	Your pronunciation is very good, similar to a native speaker.	Your pronunciation is good. Your teacher and classmates do not have difficulty understanding you.	Your pronunciation is fair. At times, your teacher and classmates may have difficulty understanding you.	Your pronunciation is poor. It is very difficult to understand what you are trying to say.
Fluency	Your speech flows. There are no hesitations. Most of the time you self- correct your mistakes.	Your speech mainly flows. There may be a few hesitations. Sometimes you self- correct your mistakes.	Your speech does not flow smoothly. There are many hesitations. Many mistakes are not corrected.	Many hesitations and mistakes prevented communication. You use English to convey meaning.
Vocabulary	You use a wide variety of vocabulary in creative ways.	You use the necessary vocabulary to complete the project.	You use less than the necessary vocabulary to complete the project.	You use little or no French vocabulary.
Grammar and Structures	You speak in full sentences without many errors. Your mistakes do not prevent successful communication	You speak mostly in full sentences with a few errors. Your mistakes do not prevent successful communication	You use phrases and / or single word responses instead of full sentences. Many mistakes may prevent successful communication	You use phrases, single word responses and / or English instead of full sentences. Many mistakes prevent communication